PROJECTS

Provided legal support for an investment project of a major Korean company

Provided legal support in connection with the implementation of an investment project of a major foreign client in an ADA: prepared a report on the possibility of implementing a project in the ADA based on Russian legislation, analysed relevant laws and systems for the construction of facilities within the project, and analysed the business structure, such as public-private partnership, in the case of foreign investments.

Devised a strategy for the pre-trial settlement of a dispute

Drafted a memo on the development of a roadmap regarding the settlement of a dispute between a shipowner and a charterer, identifying possible legal risks and measures to prevent those risks. We proposed an efficient strategy for the pre-trial settlement of the dispute, successfully negotiated with the charterer, and drafted a mutually beneficial agreement for the settlement of disputes between the parties.

Provided legal support to a mining company during desk tax audits

Tax inspectors contested the taxpayer's compliance with the requirements of the Russian Tax Code for participants in regional investment projects. Pepeliaev Group's team devised a position and proved that the client had lawfully applied severance tax relief in relation to the whole amount of the minerals it had extracted.

Advised a major gold-mining company with regard to an IPPA

Drafted a memo for a major gold-mining company, analysing the procedure and describing the advantages of an investment protection and promotion agreement (IPPA); devised recommendations relating to the IPPA's provisions on how conditions of a regional investment project (RIP) may be stabilised; analysed the possibility of having the regimes of an RIP and IPPA combined, and the risks of the status of an RIP participant being terminated if combined with the IPPA regime.

Provided legal support during the creation of an industrial park featuring Korean-Russian economic cooperation in Primorye Territory

The Far Eastern Office's lawyers provided legal assistance to a client in connection with the creation of an industrial park further to Korean-Russian economic collaboration in Primorye Territory. The industrial park will serve as an investment platform for Korean companies.

Provided legal support during an internal audit of and drafted documents for a large Japanese company

Our team assisted a large Japanese company with conducting an internal audit and devised effective recommendations for how its local regulations and internal documents should be drafted and implemented.
